Memorandum

To: Anna Russell
City Secretary

From: Calvin D. Wells, Deputy Director
Strategic Purchasing Division

Date: January 14, 2010

Subject: Communications Security Equipment and Components

Bid No: S35-S22644

Bids

Rec'd: 09/25/2008

You are hereby advised that the bid received for Communication Security Equipment and Components for Various Department is being rejected for the following reason:

- All bids received exceed the department director's or purchasing agent's estimated costs, and the director or purchasing agent determines that the bids appear to be excessive; or
- The department director or purchasing agent determines that the project or purchase is no longer required; or
- The department director or purchasing agent determines that the city's design or specifications for the project or bid should be revised and new bids should be taken.

This bid rejection is made pursuant to the delegated authority to the Purchasing Agent by the City Council in City of Houston Ordinance No. 2001-356 which amended Chapter 15, Section 15.46 of the Code Ordinance to allow the City Purchasing Agent to return bid bonds and reject bids under any of the circumstances listed above.

If you should have any questions or require additional information regarding this matter, please call Desiree R. Heath at 832-393-8742 or me direct at 832-393-8700.

Bid Closing Date: September 25, 2008

Dear Ms. DeBettignies:

This letter serves notice that the bid for communications security equipment and components has been rejected.

The "Notice to Bidders" page of the solicitation documents states "the City reserves the right to reject any or all bids". The City Council has delegated the authority to the Purchasing Agent in City of Houston Ordinance No. 2001-356 which amended Chapter 15, Section 15.46 of the Code Ordinance to return bid bonds and reject bids under certain circumstances. Accordingly, bids have been rejected for the above subject bid on the following circumstance.

- All bids received exceed the department director's or purchasing agent's estimated costs, and the director or purchasing agent determines that the bids appear to be excessive.

Thank you for responding to this solicitation and we look forward to your continued interest in doing business with the City. If you should have any questions or require additional information regarding this matter, please call John Dearmon at (832) 393.8744.

Sincerely,
